

JAN OBLAK

Jan Oblak is a professional football goalkeeper from Slovenia. He was born on 7th of January , 1993 in Kranj. He grew up in a town called Škofja Loka. Jan went to Primary school Cvetko Golar. My sister Maša was his classmate. Jan started playing football in 1999 for his home town club Ločan. At the age of 10, he already played for Olimpija, Slovenian best football club at that time. Jan was a goalkeeper in Olimpija for 7 years. Lots of other clubs were interested in Oblak, such as Fulham, Liverpool, Aston Villa, but he signed for Portuguese club Benfica. Because of his talent, he was noticed by bigger football clubs. In 2014 Jan signed a six-year contract with Atletico Madrid. Atletico paid 16 million Euros for Oblak. That made him the eighth most expensive goalkeeper in football history and the most expensive in Spanish League. He is also the most expensive Slovenian footballer of all time. Jan is the main goalkeeper in Atletico and he is really good. He has a number 13 on his T - shirt.

Jan is also a goalkeeper for Slovenian national football team. He had 126 appearances until now. 23 of them were for national football team.
